Pierre Poilievre and the Common Sense Conservatives

Dear Friend,

After eight years, Justin Trudeau divides to control the people. He demonizes anyone who disagrees to distract from what's broken.

He thinks if you are afraid of your neighbour, you will forget you can't pay your rent.

Now he has given his hand-picked officials the power to censor online speech and control what you see on your phones.

He's also downgraded our military, and allowed foreign interference in our democracy. Under Trudeau, Canadians are less free at home and less secure against threats from abroad.

The Common Sense Conservatives will bring home freedom by protecting our country against foreign threats and government overreach here at home.

We will stop mandates, digital IDs, central bank digital currencies and woke censorship on campus and online.

We will rebuild our military at home and our alliances abroad, and crack down on foreign interference in our democracy.

Canadians will bring home control of their lives and democracy from foreign dictators and global elites, and we will make Canada the freest country in the world. Let's bring it home.

Sincerely,

Brad Redekopp
